

REFUSE TO GO TO AID OF TITANIC

CALIFORNIAN STOOD BY AND SAW STEAMER SINK

Story Told by Engineer Who Testified Before Committee—Sweeping Denial Made by Captain of Californian—Other Witnesses Heard.

Washington, April 26.—A blaze with light from her saloons and cabins, the Titanic dashed full speed ahead to her destruction, according to Ernest Gill, a donkey engineer of the steamship Californian, who testified to day before the senate committee investigating the disaster. He said that Captain Stanley Lord of the Californian refused to go to the aid of the Titanic, the rockets from which could be plainly seen. This Captain Lord denied, but both he and his wireless operator acknowledged to having seen rockets. Their ship, the said, was fast in the ice.

Gill submitted an affidavit to the committee and when sworn and put on the stand told to his charges against the captain of the Californian. He said he was standing on the deck late Sunday night when he sighted a great ship sweeping along at top speed about ten miles off. He did not know it was the Titanic, but he knew it readily that it was not a freighter or a small vessel because of the manner in which it was illuminated. Some time later he saw distress rockets on the horizon. He says the captain was appraised of these signals, but made no effort to get up steam to go to the rescue. The Californian was drifting with the ice. So indignant did he become, said Gill, that he endeavored to recruit a committee of protest from among the crew, but the men failed him.

Denial by Lord.
Captain Lord entered a sweeping denial of Gill's accusations and read from the Californian's log to support his contentions. Cyril Evans, the Californian's wireless operator, however, told of hearing much talk among the crew who were critical of the captain's course. Gill, he said, told him he expected to get $500 for his story when the ship reached Boston.

Evans told of having warned the Titanic only a brief time before the great vessel crashed into the berg, that the sea was crowded with ice. The Titanic's operators, he said, at the time were working with the wireless station at Cape Race, and they told him to "shut up and keep out."

Within a half hour the pride of the sea was crumpled and sinking.

One Reform Certain.
It developed to day that one reform that is certain to spring from the present investigation will be enforced in the wireless rooms of ships entering or leaving American ports. This concerns lack of authority over the operators, pay, hours and freedom from responsibility, as brought out in the testimony to date.

Senator Smith, chairman, announced publicly that such legislation was inevitable. When Lord took the witness stand late to day he was prepared to enter a sweeping denial of the statements of Ernest Gill and did so. Using the log book of the Californian to assist in telling his story. Captain Lord said that about 10:15 Sunday night he got in communication with the Titanic and told that ship the Californian was surrounded by ice and had stopped. This notice to the Titanic, he said, was a matter of courtesy. The Titanic answered and told us to "shut up and keep out," said Captain Lord. He had no further communication with the Titanic. They were then about 19½ miles apart.

Got Call Next Morning.
Lord said he did not get the Titanic's "C. D. Q." call, but got it the next morning from the Virginian and he started immediately full speed for the Titanic. Captain Lord said he saw none of the Titanic's signals. Captain Lord said he got word of the wreck at 6 o'clock in the morning and was at the scene at 8:30, when they drew alongside the Carpathia.

Captain Lord said there was very little wreckage to be seen and no bodies.

Captain Lord remained searching from 8:30 to 11:30 a. m. and saw no further signs of the Titanic.

Witness said his wireless operator had gone to bed before 11:45 Sunday night.

Not Distress Signals.
Captain Lord said he was on the bridge himself until 10:30 Sunday night and that the watch was doubled. At that time, Lord said, the officer in charge said he thought he saw a light, but they had been having trouble with the stars—mistaking them for lights. A ship came within four or five miles of them, but he was certain it was not the Titanic. She sent up several rockets but did not answer the Californian's calls. Lord said he had a "faint recollection of hearing a cabin boy about 4 o'clock say something about the ship still standing by. Soon after that she steamed away. This boat sent up several white rockets, but they were not distress signals."

The first news of the wreck came from the Frankfurt, and then the Virginian sent word and later sent another message asking that word of the extent of the damage be sent her.

Operator Testifies.
Cyril Evans, the Californian's wireless operator, told of having been awakened at 3:40 Monday morning by the chief officer, who said he had seen rockets. Evans called and received news from the Frankfurt of the Titanic disaster. The Virginian later furnished more information. Evans says he heard several times about rockets having been seen and according to them Captain Lord had been told of the incident three times.

Women Praised.
Three Titanic lookouts, each of whom had charge of a life boat when picked up by the Carpathia, testified before Senator Perkins in executive session.

"I think all the women ought to have gold medals on their breasts. God bless them," said G. A. Mogg of Hull. "I will always raise my hat to a woman who had done duty in the crow's nest before the collision. If we had had glasses," said Mogg, "we might have seen the berg before."

A positive declaration that within three miles of the Titanic when that vessel sank was another steamer, whose two masthead lights were plainly visible, was made by Edward John Butler of Southampton, an able seaman. Butler testified that this ship was in sight when the Titanic sank and that "she passed right by without any signal."

"We thought she was coming to us and if she had, every one could have boarded her," said Butler. "She had her steamers lights burning," he said.

He added that all the life boats started for the same light which kept all the boats together. For about three hours he said she was stationary and then disappeared.

"She could not help but see the rockets. She was close enough to see our light and to see the ship itself and also the rockets. She was bound to see them," he said.

WAITING FOR MORGUE SHIP.

Relatives of Titanic Victims Gathered at Halifax.

Halifax, April 26.—Halifax is waiting in funeral garb the arrival of the Titanic ship. Mackay-Bennett with its cargo of dead from the Titanic. Hotels are crowded with the bereaved and every rain brings additional relatives of victims. When the ship will arrive was uncertain tonight for no wireless direct from the vessel was received here during the day and advices from the White Star line offices in New York varied from as early as tomorrow morning and as late as that of Monday noon.

Prominent persons are from England and the United States prepared to identify and take charge of bodies brought ashore. All the usual formalities have been waived, so there will be no delay in moving bodies promptly as they are claimed.

The express companies will transport the dead from here free of charge and the White Star line will see to it that bodies of victims who lived in England or on the continent are sent where relatives designate.

McCASKRIN INDICTED.

Charged With Sending Improper Cards Through Mail.

Peoria, Ill., April 26.—Harry McCaskrin, Republican nominee for state's attorney of Rock Island county, Illinois, was indicted by the federal grand jury here today on charges of sending improper postal cards through the mails. The complaining witness, Rufus Schultz of Geneseo, Ill., but who formerly lived in Rock Island, had received six postal cards mailed from his former home at regular intervals between November and February. These cards bore scandalous matter, it is alleged, and McCaskrin is charged with being responsible for their presence in the mails.

FIERCE BATTLE RAGING.

Culiacan, Mexico, April 25 via El Paso, Texas, April 26.—The fiercest battle of the revolution on west coast is now raging at Tepic, where 2,000 rebels are engaged in a determined effort to take the town.

There was heavy loss of life when the big cathedral at Tepic, crowded with refugees, was raised. The state house was torn down and the residences of a number of the wealthiest citizens were looted and torn down. The battle began last 10 o'clock yesterday morning and was still in progress at 6 o'clock this morning. Some of the heaviest fighting occurred in Mexico street near the Bola De Ora, wherein a short time the pavement became slippery with blood.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Watertown, S. D., April 26.—Discouraged over the persistent refusal of his offer of marriage to a school teacher of Brookings county, Frank Pomhouse, a young man whose parents reside at Duncombe, Ia., committed suicide by shooting himself in the head in the presence of the teacher and her pupils at a school house nine miles southwest of here. News of the tragedy which occurred yesterday afternoon reached here today.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Washington, April 26.—For Illinois: Fair Saturday, cooler in north and central portions; Sunday, fair in north, unsettled in south; moderate west winds becoming variable.

MAY FIND GALLOWES.

Chicago, April 26.—For more than fifty years, Louis Murray, 60 years old, had a premonition that some day he would face the gallows, and now it is come true. He will go on trial April 29 for the alleged murder of Charles Garpow, a hotel clerk, whom Murray stabbed during a fight.

ILLINOIS WON GAME.

Champaign, Ill., April 26.—By timely hitting the University of Illinois baseball team defeated the Indiana University club today 4 to 3.

DENUNCIATION OF PRESIDENT TAFT

ROOSEVELT REPLIES TO AT-TACK MADE ON HIM.

Says Taft Has Been in Thought,
Word and Deed Disloyal to Past Friendship—Says President Is Himself Guilty of Crooked Deals.

Worcester, Mass., April 26.—Morelless denunciation of President Taft was Col. Roosevelt's reply to night to the president's attack upon him yesterday. Some of Col. Roosevelt's assertions were:

That President Taft had not given the people of the country a "square deal," but that owing to a "quality of feebleness," he had "yielded to the bosses and the great privileged interests."

That one part of the president's attack upon him was "the crookedest kind of a deal" and "deliberate misrepresentation."

That the president "has not merely in thought, word and deed been disloyal to our past friendship, but has been disloyal to every canon of ordinary decency and fair dealing such as should obtain even in dealing with a man's bitterest opponents."

That the president's statement regarding the influence of federal office holders in the campaign was "not only an untruth, but it is an absurd untruth."

That Mr. Taft convicted himself of insincerity when he signed the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill.

That in speaking of Col. Roosevelt's position in regard to the trust problem, President Taft "is himself guilty of a crooked deal."

Col. Roosevelt took President Taft's attack on him point by point, flaying the president in one scathing sentence after the other.

Col. Roosevelt was escorted to Mechanic Hall by a torchlight procession.

Roosevelt said he considered the issues at stake too important to permit them to be twisted into personalities between President Taft and him. But, he said, President Taft's speech of yesterday contained statements he must answer. He criticized Taft for using epithets in referring to him. He said he had never quoted private letters or private communications but quoted exclusively the president's actions.

"I was always parliamentary, and never hypocritical," Roosevelt said. Col. Roosevelt referred to President Taft's explanation of his statement "that one is a government of all the people by a representative part of the people."

"For him to try," said Col. Roosevelt, "to escape the consequences of his statements by saying that he alluded only to women and children is trifling with the intelligence of the people. To speak of such action on his part as a 'square deal' is itself the crookedest kind of a deal. He is trying to draw the consequences of his statement by deliberate misrepresentation of that statement."

Defined Political Boss.

Col. Roosevelt defined the political "boss" as the "man responsible for the alliance between crooked politics and crooked business which has been responsible for nine tenths of the corruption in American political life."

Roosevelt said he does not know of any boss among his supporters, but declared the bosses were on the president's side. He said he did accept the assistance of bosses when they "chose to go my way and to support the cause of the people," but he added, President Taft "gets their assistance at the price of going their way and opposing the cause of the people."

Roosevelt denounced as "the most astounding hypocrisy" Taft's statement that he had never thought word or deed been disloyal in his friendship for the colonel.

"When Mr. Taft made that statement," continued Roosevelt, "just sent to the United States senate in half hour's notice, obviously in collusion with the Lorimer Democratic senator who made the request papers which were intended to convey the impression that I had improperly favored the harvester trust by declining to prosecute it in 1907."

Disloyal and Deceitful.

"When Mr. Taft obviously to influence the Massachusetts primary and obviously in collusion with one of Mr. Lorimer's senatorial supporters, takes the action he did he has not merely in thought, word and deed been disloyal to our past friendship but has been disloyal to our decency and fair dealings such as should obtain even in dealing with a man's bitterest opponents. Such conduct represents the very crookedest kind of a crooked deal."

Col. Roosevelt then took up the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company matter, and denied it as fact and unbecoming. The "assault upon him by Taft's campaign managers," made in Washington under Mr. Taft's very eyes.

Reciprocity Subject.

Roosevelt denied that he changed front on the reciprocity measure as he said Mr. Taft alleged, referring to the publication of a letter of his marked "confidential." Roosevelt said:

"Incidentally one of the unpardonable sins of the part of any man calling himself a gentleman is to publish confidential letters, without permission."

The colonel declared he supported Taft's reciprocity proposition in ev-

RENEWS ATTACK ON ROOSEVELT

TAFT CARRIES HIS FIGHT INTO NEW JERSEY.

Tells People of Newark He Answers
Criticism of Ex-President With Reluctance—Contents That Roosevelt Has Not Given Him Square Deal.

Newark, N. J., April 26.—President Taft renewed in Newark tonight his attack on Col. Theodore Roosevelt. Carrying his "fighting" campaign into New Jersey the president spoke to several thousand people in the armory here, declaring that it was with the utmost reluctance that he had decided to answer Mr. Roosevelt's criticism. He did not reply to Mr. Roosevelt's charges in detail, but tried to make it plain that in his opinion Mr. Roosevelt knew most of the charges were groundless.

"In ordinary circumstances," said President Taft, "it is not dignified for a president of the United States to enter into a personal controversy. But I am forced against the wall with my back to it and I am bound if I have any manhood, to fight."

The president spoke with evident emotion. He walked the platform, pounded the rail in front of him and as he warmed up to his subject, grew red in the face with anger.

He referred briefly to many of Mr. Roosevelt's charges which he answered in Boston last night; his alleged friendship for Senator Lorimer of Illinois and for the bosses in various states, to the declaration that he was in favor of an oligarchy and against government by the people and to many others.

"The thing that sinks deepest in my heart," said the president, "is the charge that I am an oligarch and do not believe in the ability of the people of the United States to govern themselves. If there is anything I have pride in, it is that I am an American citizen and a part of the American government that has shown itself the finest and best most benefited in the world."

Taking up the charge that he was not a progressive Mr. Taft said he did not think a progressive could be judged by his looks or by his appreciation of poetry.

"I think progressiveness is determined by what is done and not by what is said," cried the president.

"Of all the men in the world who advocate practical work in politics, Theodore Roosevelt is a notable example. Read his works and see how he defends himself for his association with 'bosses' because he said that they were the men who do things."

In closing the president called attention to what he called "the danger" of a third term.

"Are the conditions so peculiar," asked the president, "that he is needed to do the job, as he calls it? The why not a fourth and a fifth term?"

All through his speech the president voiced his belief that Mr. Roosevelt had not given him a square deal.

SHERIFF TOO BUSY.

No Effort Made to Capture Men Who Assaulted Two Women.

Bloomington, Ill., April 26.—Because Sheriff Armstrong of Clinton was too busy serving papers no effort was made to day to capture the two men who, at a late hour last night, attacked Mrs. Sarah Daniels, aged 82, and her daughter Ida, seven miles southwest of Clinton.

The men first entered the room of the daughter and tying with ropes went to the room of the aged woman and bent her with clubs, her condition is very serious.

The sheriff was promptly notified, Miss Daniels escaping and going to the house of a neighbors and called up on the telephone.

This being "return day" in the De Witt county circuit court the sheriff's office was swamped with papers to be served and that official put in a busy day at that work. He announced to night that he would begin work on the assault case to morrow.

BOOKKEEPER MIXED UP.

Interest Aroused by Death of Two of the Three Patients of Same Name.

Danville, Ill., April 26.—Three patients at the Kankakee asylum known as William Moore No. 1, William Moore No. 2 and William Moore No. 3, two of whom have died in the past five years, got the asylum bookkeeper mixed up and aroused great interest among relatives concerning the identity of the patient still alive, also of those buried.

One body, labeled "William Moore," was buried near Edgar, Edgemoor, five years ago, despite doubts expressed by the mother and other relatives of a patient of that name sent to the asylum from there.

A few months later another "William Moore" died in the asylum and was shipped to Catlin, Vermillion county, and buried by relatives near there.

Recently an attorney of this city, who was conservator for the Catlin William Moore, was visited by an asylum official who demanded pay for caring for the patient. The attorney informed the official that he had paid a Catlin undertaker to bury William H. Moore, his estate had been settled up, and his widow had re-married.

TRADE REVIEW

Recent Improvement Fully Maintained—Proofs of Activity More Noticeable.

New York, April 26.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade to morrow will say:
That the recent improvement in the volume of trade is fully maintained is evidenced by the latest statistics. These proofs of business activity are all the more significant because weather conditions have not been altogether favorable to distribution and retail trade has, in particular, been somewhat checked as a consequence.

Although there is some shading of prices on structural material, where desirable contracts are involved, the iron and steel situation as a whole, reflects increased strength. Speculations continue at a good rate and the larger plants are still operating at an apparently 90 per cent of capacity. Revised estimates of the amount of steel bars taken by agricultural interests place the total at about 200,000 tons and quotations are now on the basis of 1.20. Large orders for steel cars and railway equipment are absent at present, but a heavy volume of business was carried over from last year and war plants are fairly busy. Moderate activity appears in pig-iron

PITTSFIELD WON ATHLETIC MEET

TEAM DOUBLED THE SCORE OF NEAREST OPPONENT.

Illinois Valley High School Athletic Association Held at Griggsville—Whipple Academy Takes Third Place—Griggsville Wins Declaration Contest.

The second annual meet of the Illinois Valley High School Athletic Association was held at the fair grounds in Griggsville Friday afternoon and the declaration contest in the evening. Pittsfield won the athletic meet and Wayne Stead of Griggsville was the winner of the declaration contest. Whipple academy, who entered a team, was third in the race. The winners follow:

Pittsfield	47
Griggsville	24
Whipple Academy	20
Mt. Sterling	15
Barry	8
Winchester	2

There was an unusually large attendance, the delegates from Pittsfield going over in a special train. The track was muddy which accounts in a great measure to the slow time made. The 50 yard dash and the 100 yard dash were run on the turf. Pittsfield sent over a strong team and had no trouble in annexing the meet. They easily doubled the number of points of their nearest opponent—Griggsville.

This was the first time since 1898 that Whipple Academy has entered a team in an athletic event and considering that they only entered five men their record is worthy of commendation. Whipple won three firsts, Prins taking the shot put and discus throw and Alford the 440 yard dash. Alford also took second in the 220 yard dash. Morrison found some fast company in the running high jump, taking third place. Stark, who was slated for the mile and half mile events, took sick on the track and was not able to compete.

Grove was the highest individual point winner, securing 21 points out of the 24 scored by the Griggsville school.

Quincy, Beardstown and Meredosia were to have sent teams, but for some unknown reason did not appear. The Griggsville people accordingly every courtesy to the visiting teams and visitors and no accidents happened to mar the day.

Coach Harmon acted as referee; Vaught, starter; Bucher, timekeeper; Barry, field judge. The Illinois college men pulled off the meet in first class shape.

Declaration Contest.

The declaration contest was held in the opera house Friday evening and was a very lively affair. The speakers were given splendid attention and the judges awarded first place to Wayne Stead of Griggsville and second honors went to the Barry representative. Prins, Carl E. Robinson of Whipple Academy was one of the judges.

Winners of Events.

The following is the list of events and winners: First, Prins, Whipple Academy; second, Grove, Griggsville; third, Hanson, Pittsfield. Distance, 41 feet, 10 1/2 inches. Mile run—First, Simpson, Mt. Sterling; second, Garvin, Pittsfield; third, Padgett, Barry. Time, 5:17 2-5.

LOWERED GREAT DOOR.

A large crowd of people gathered at the new Ayers National bank building Friday morning to watch the men engaged in lowering the big door to the vault into the basement. The door weighed 30,000 pounds and the work of lowering it was arduous. Four heavy ropes and a wire cable were required in securing the door and they were fastened to a tree in the rear of the Russell & Lyon jewelry store. The work was also quite dangerous as a slip would no doubt have meant damage and loss of life and property. This difficult job was done under the direction of William Nunes.

MEETING IN FIRST WARD.

Miss Anna Brown Makes Interesting Address at Parent-Teachers' Meeting.

A Parent-Teachers' meeting of the first ward was held at the Jefferson school Friday afternoon. The principal speaker was Miss Anna Brown of the department of manual training of the high school. Her subject was "Wood and Wood Finishes" and the address was full of splendid ideas. Many of the parents present expressed the wish that such a subject might be taught in the ward schools. The meeting was in charge of the chairman, Mrs. W. S. Badger, who also spoke on the flower gardens for the children.

A committee composed of Mrs. Pires, Mrs. Vieira and Mrs. Phillips presented a petition, which was voted upon and adopted, asking the board of education to investigate the needed repairs at the Jefferson school and to see that the work was done.

The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. A. J. Jones.
Vice president—Mrs. W. S. Badger.
Secretary and treasurer—Miss Gussie Duffner.
Chairman of program committee—Mrs. Spencer Taylor.

COUNTY COURT CASES ON TRIAL

E. Etter Secures Verdict for Farm Commission—Question of Corn Delivery Causes Suit.

In the case of the people against William Mallicoat charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory, which was tried before Judge Brockhouse in the county court, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The witnesses put on by the state in this case were Sol Cowan, John and George Jameson, but their testimony did not prove of a very damaging character.

The case of E. Etter against Ezekiel Edwards was given to the jury about 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and after about two hours deliberation a verdict was returned in favor of the complainant, fixing $270 as the amount due him. The suit involved the commission for the sale of a farm alleged to be due. Mr. Etter maintained that he had offered a farm belonging to Mr. Edwards at a certain price and that subsequently Mr. Edwards had sold to the same party at a lower price. The jury which heard the case was as follows: Bud Seng, Norman Kuykendall, Arthur Henderson, Clarence York, John Dickens, Hiram Johnson, O. B. Cannon, Chris Henze, Frank Piepenbring, Otto Eckles, R. R. Mawson, W. H. Suydan.

A jury has been secured for the trial of the case of Central Illinois Grain Co. against Charles Ashbaker. The suit is the result of a sale of corn which remains undelivered. The complainants allege that they bought Mr. Ashbaker's corn some months ago and that he now refuses to deliver the same and in view of the advance in price they wish damages to the extent of $800. On the other hand Mr. Ashbaker alleges damages of $1,000 setting forth that he offered to deliver the corn, but that the company could not take it and that he has suffered loss because of the deterioration of the corn from weather or other causes. Bellatti, Barnes & Bellatti are representing the complainants, and Kirby, Wilson & Baldwin the defendant. The jury in the case is as follows: S. S. Bacon, T. F. Eckhoff, J. H. Campbell, John Hodgson, Frank Spires, F. J. Muehlhausen, William Hagan, H. S. Rayborn, C. H. Martin, H. Cain, J. W. McLaughlin and J. B. Keplinger.

FARM HOUSE BURNED.

Residence of G. A. Hobbs Southwest of City Destroyed By Fire.

The house on the farm of George Eberhardt, ten miles southwest of the city, was recently completely destroyed by fire. G. A. Hobbs a grandson of Mr. Eberhardt, resides on the place. He and his two sons were at work in the fields and Mrs. Hobbs and her little daughter were at home. The fire is thought to have originated from the kitchen stove by a spark falling on the roof. Some of the household goods were saved but everything else was destroyed with the house. Mr. Eberhardt carried no insurance on the place and his loss is estimated at $1,500.

The fire was discovered by the little girl who was playing in the yard and saw the roof in flames. She gave the alarm to her mother and Mrs. Hobbs called on neighbors for help as her husband was too far away to be reached. All efforts to put out the fire were fruitless and the building was burned to the ground.

OLYMPIC PASSENGERS.

Southampton, April 26.—Some of the passengers booked to sail on the Olympic regard the action of firemen and seamen in striking as utterly unwarranted, but many of them apparently feel also that they were badly treated by the steamship company because they were kept on board for two and a half days without being informed, as they declare, of the actual state of affairs. Eighty of the first cabin passengers of the Olympic and twenty from the second cabin started for London this evening on a special train, having accepted the White Star line's offer to refund their fares and permit them to shift for themselves.

SOUTH SIDE CIRCLE

Final Meeting of the Year Held at the Home of Mrs. J. J. Reeve.

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the South Side circle was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. J. Reeve on Prospect street. It was the final meeting of the year and a splendid program had been arranged, in charge of Mrs. E. C. Carpenter. Almost the entire membership of the club was present, including a large number of invited guests.

The program follows:
"From the Land of the Sky-blue Water".....Charles Cadman
"Still as the Night".....Carl Bohm
"In the Dark; In the Dew".....Whitney-Coombs

Mrs. Harold Gay.
Paper—"Sketch of the Life of Ludwig Van Beethoven"
Mrs. J. J. Reeve.

The Sonata—Its Place in the World of Musical Composition.
Sonata Pathetic—Beethoven, Illustrated. (1) Grave; (2) Adagio; (3) Rondo.

Mrs. E. C. Carpenter.
"The Northern Days".....Chadwick
"By Gone Days".....
"He Loves Me".....
Mrs. Julian Hall.

A pleasing part of the program was the introduction to musical terms. Each term was written on a card and these were read by the guests, which proved entertaining and instructive. Refreshments in keeping with the May Day idea were carried out.

REBEKAHS HAD INITIATION.

Jacksonville Lodge No. 13 Held Interesting Meeting.

Eight candidates were initiated in Jacksonville Rebekah Lodge No. 13 Friday night at the regular meeting of the lodge. There were about 125 present at this meeting, several of them from Ashland, Mt. Sterling and other places, beside a large number of visitors from the Rebekah lodge No. 625. Those given the work were Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Planders, C. O. Bayha, Miss Barbara Gregory, Miss Maud Mills, Miss Bessie Mathers, Miss Mary Rowan and Miss Eunice Daniels. Following the business session a social hour and a banquet were enjoyed. Much credit for the success of the meeting is due the committee in charge—Mrs. John Rawlings, Miss Winnie Wackerle and Miss Sarah Kershaw. Among those present from out of the city were Mrs. Charles Douglas, Mrs. Hind and Mrs. Reno of Ashland, Miss Robinson of Mt. Sterling and Mrs. Hubbard of Galatia. The visitors from Ashland invited the degree staff of lodge No. 13 to come to that city some time soon to confer the work on a large class of candidates.

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Sanford have returned from Orlando, Fla., where they have been for the past three months or more. They greatly enjoyed their sojourn in the south. An excellent cake is on display at Cawley's market to day made of the celebrated White Lily flour.

WATER SYSTEM TO BE INVESTIGATED

Management of State Water Survey to Make Thorough Inspection of Local Condition—Action Taken Medical Society.

A call meeting of the Morgan County Medical society was held Friday night at the public library, at the request of the committee on public water supply, consisting of Dr. T. J. Pitner, Dr. J. W. Haysgrove and Dr. C. B. Black. The object of the meeting was for the purpose of taking action relative to an investigation of the entire water supply of Jacksonville, under the management of the state water survey. A resolution was unanimously adopted inviting such an investigation.

The committee has been in correspondence for some time with Dr. Edward Bartow, head of the state water survey, concerning local conditions and he expressed a willingness to accept the invitation, to send a corps of men here to do the necessary work.

There was a large attendance of the physicians last night and the resolution was made on motion of Dr. W. K. McLaughlin, seconded by Dr. E. F. Baker, and unanimously adopted. The resolution was to the effect that the state water survey management be notified that the society desired a comprehensive inspection of every phase of the city's water supply.

In the correspondence, Dr. Bartow stated if it was so desired by society, that the offer of the state department be accepted, he would send his chief engineer Paul Hansen here next week with a competent corps of helpers.

Up until last year such investigation was not possible, on account of the lack of funds. At the meeting of the last last legislature, a bill was passed in which a liberal fund was provided, whereby the State Water Survey management could further their work. Through this appropriation the state is now enabled to go ahead and do a large amount of work and through the splendidly equipped laboratory of the state, every advantage will be afforded to obtain results that are accurate and of inestimable value to the community.

The Chinese Are Fighters.

Those who say that the Chinese have never been fighters speak without the book. The world's first book of war was written by a Chinese. But China is a peace loving country and enters the family of great powers as moderator of the assembly. China realizes two things—first, that her own prosperity depends on the preservation of peace and, second, that the world's prosperity depends on peace. During the negotiations between the republicans and the Manchus the former actually proposed that peace should be established first and details left to The Hague tribunal. When Yuan Shih Kai was recalled to Peking the first thing he proposed was peace between the two factions. This is the temper of the people.—Leslie's.

Fiber From Straw.

An invention that has caused no little excitement in the textile world in Reichenberg, Austria, consists of a process of treatment of common straw whereby it is now possible to secure therefrom a fiber suitable for spinning. The discoverers themselves assert that their success far exceeds their original expectations. The influence of this new material upon the textile industry will be far-reaching.

WILL WRITE ABOUT THIS CITY

Oscar E. Hewitt, Special Correspondent for the Chicago Tribune is here—Retiree About Purpose of Visit.

Jacksonville people who read the Chicago Tribune, and they are many, are familiar with the name of Oscar E. Hewitt which appears at the head of numerous valuable columns in the Tribune. Mr. Hewitt who graduated from Illinois College in 1900 and so is known to Jacksonville people arrived here Friday afternoon evidently with the intention of staying a day or two. It is fair to presume therefore that Jacksonville is about to be "written up" in the Tribune.

When asked about his mission here yesterday, Mr. Hewitt naturally did not get very communicative as he is paid to write not to talk. However judging from the line of inquiries he is known to have been making it is a safe guess that "Water" will be the very prolific theme for his Jacksonville story. The water question which has agitated Jacksonville for a number of years, the situation and cases growing out of the Jacksonville Water Company's project and the development of the Widenham and Daub Wells have served to attract the attention of the state. The death rate given in the reports of the state board of health is not a thing to be proud of and so it has followed that a number of health experts and others interested in questions of municipal water supply have had an eye on the water situation here.

Up in Chicago Mr. Hewitt is called a municipal expert and he does special work for the Tribune in Chicago and elsewhere writing on municipal themes. When someone asked him not long ago if he was doing political writing his answer was "No, I don't have anything to do with politics in the ordinary acceptance of that term. In my writing work I make no effort to influence elections. I deal with men after they are elected and try to show up what they have done or have not done as the case may require. Of course I discuss conditions as well as men."

After graduating from Ill. Coll. Mr. Hewitt who had an instinct for newspaper work went immediately to Chicago. His first work was with the City Press Association. Then he was with the Chronicle and before that excellently edited paper failed he went to the Record Herald. Later for a year or more he held the important office of assistant director of public works in Chicago and when he gave up that post was taken on by the Tribune for special work. It is a big work for Mr. Hewitt is doing and he has made good or his name would not appear on the Tribune's pages.

SAVED GIRLS LIFE.
Meriden, Conn., April 26.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt this afternoon saved a young girl, whose name is not known from being crushed under the wheels of his train. The colonel's train stopped here for a few minutes on the way to Worcester. A girl on the train to which the colonel's car was attached, had left her car and joined the crowd listening to his speech. The express started suddenly and the girl made a frantic grab for the railing on the platform. She managed to cling to it although carried from her feet. Col. Roosevelt reached over the railing and pulled the girl to the platform while the crowd cheered.

HAS SOLD RESIDENCE.
Richard C. Reynolds has sold his residence property on West College avenue to S. T. Anderson, possession to be given next September. At that time Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and Miss Emma Reynolds will occupy the former home of the late Ralph Reynolds which Mr. Anderson is now renting. The house will be remodeled to some extent.

DR. PIERSONS DEAD.

Aged Philanthropist Passed Away This Morning.

Chicago, April 27.—Dr. D. K. Piersons, the aged philanthropist, died in a sanitarium at Hinsdale, early this morning.

Dr. Piersons, in recent years, gave more than $5,000,000 to colleges chiefly in the middle-west. He began giving money to needy colleges in 1888 and in sums ranging from $10,000 to $150,000 disposed of more than $5,000,000. His last gift, he said, left him comparatively poor, with an income sufficient to keep him from want.

AT THE GRAND.

A large audience greeted Miss Margaret Illington at the Grand Opera house Friday night in her new play, "Kindling." Many critics since Miss Illington's splendid success in "The Thief," ventured the assertion that in her new play she would secure even greater success, which is veritably true. In "Kindling" she is Maggie Schultz, the young wife of a stevedore, who seeks to obtain health and happiness for her unborn babe, believing that it would be worse than criminal to bring a child into the world in a crowded tenement, such as was her home. In this sad story of Maggie Schultz, Miss Illington is afforded wonderful opportunity to display every emotion known to the human heart and her work is of such a character as to elicit the highest praise. But not alone to Miss Illington is the success of "Kindling" due for a company of clever players has surrounded her, each one being unusually strong in the delineation of character. The Jacksonville people showed sincere appreciation of her efforts by sincere applause and the attraction was one of especial worth and commendation. The lesson of the play is said to have caused a vast improvement in some tenement house districts of the large cities. "Kindling" is a problem in engines and its plain and homely lines as well as intense dramatic situations drive home arguments in a very effective way.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE CAMPAIGN PROGRESSES

Pledges of $3,000 to Endowment Fund Reported Friday at Chapel

Pledges of $3,000 to the $180,000 fund for which the Illinois woman's college is now striving, were reported Friday morning by Pres. J. R. Harker at the chapel exercises. That amount was raised during the past week, making the amount received to date $24,000. Dr. Harker and the campaign committee have made it a part of their plans to raise $50,000 between now and commencement, which will mean that a sum of $26,000 is to be raised in a little more than a month. The balance is to be raised by June 1912, a year from next commencement.

Among those present were Misses Edith Cruse, Marie Goheen, Lucile Akre, Madge Johnson, Sarah Frances Decker, Edna Reeve, Catherine Milburn, Mary Mitchell, Bernice Redding and Nina Wright.

Mrs. Edward J. Bowes who is known to the public as Miss Margaret Illington and Mr. Bowes were entertained at dinner Friday evening at Academy hall. Those at the table with the guests of honor were Mrs. Bullard, Miss Oldfield, Miss Cole, Mrs. Garrison, President Rammer, Kamp and Mr. Munzer. Mrs. Bowes, it will be remembered, prior to her marriage was Miss Maude Light of Bloomington and was for a time a student at the Female Academy. Her parents, brothers and sister still live in Bloomington and the greater part of Friday was spent at her old home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius G. Strawn entertained about thirty people Friday evening at their home on West College avenue at a dancing party for their daughter, Miss Mary. The guests were the members of Miss Helen Robinson's dancing class, to which Miss Mary belongs, and the hours proved most delightful. The Misses Robinson assisted in the entertaining.

Mrs. Mary Bridges, Mrs. Nancy Boring and Mrs. Martha Grady left last night for New Lisbon, Wis., where they will visit their sister, Mrs. Sarah Van Dyke. Together they all expect to go to the Wisconsin "Dells" to spend some time.

TWO SETS DELEGATES,

Roosevelt Faction in Missouri Accused of Breaking a "Gentleman's Agreement."

St. Louis, April 26.—Twelve Missouri Republican delegates at large will present credentials to the national Republican committee when that body meets in Chicago for the examination of credentials.

Eight of them, with half a vote each, will present credentials to the Republican state convention which instructed them for Theodore Roosevelt. The other four will protest against the seating of the Roosevelt delegation on the ground that they were elected through the breaking of a "gentleman's agreement."

The four Taft delegates were appointed by Taft leaders this morning, after the adjournment of the state convention and will be accompanied to Chicago by attorneys who will argue their case before the committee.

The eight Roosevelt delegates were chosen at an all night session, that number being agreed upon instead of the customary four in an effort to obtain harmony in the convention. The effort was successful insofar as it resulted in the Taft delegates voting for six Roosevelt delegates and two Taft delegates, who later resigned when they were instructed to cast their vote for the former president.

FIGHT OF MODERN WOODMEN

Members of Senate Urged to Pass Donohue Bill.

Springfield, Ill., April 26.—Members of the Modern Woodmen of America are being urged to appeal directly to the members of Illinois senate to pass the Donohue bill, which was put through the house last week. Although the house only passed the bill after the emergency clause had been stricken out, in consequence of which it cannot become operative until July 1, 1912, the range of file of the Woodmen are keeping up the fight for it. "The bill cannot be made retroactive, but its sponsors are hoping that the moral effect of its passage will prevent the Woodmen officers from putting the new rates into operation before the law can go into effect."

Mrs. E. Andrew of Elgin, Ill., suffered with severe backache, headache and kidney trouble when she heard of Foley Kidney Pills and began taking them. She says: "The first bottle made such a marked improvement that I immediately ordered more and am now entirely well and can honestly recommend them." City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

TOPPED MARKET.

Will Davenport of Orleans, topped the Chicago market recently with a load of fancy white face yearling heifers averaging 694 lbs. They sold at $7.65, the biggest price for that weight paid on the Chicago market this year.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health Is Worth Saving and Some Jacksonville People Know How to Save It.

Many Jacksonville people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has cured thousands of kidney sufferers.

The following statement leaves no ground for doubting the value of Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Charles Corwin, Maple street, Winchester, Ind., says: "I was annoyed for weeks by pain in the small of my back, so severe at times that I could hardly get around to do my housework. In the morning I arose feeling very lame and hardly able to walk, and to stoop or lift was out of the question. My husband advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I accordingly procured a box. They did me a great deal of good in a few days after I began their use, the backache as well as the other troubles had disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

As "Ed" Howe Sees Life

You must have noticed that a wise man keeps his mouth shut a good deal.

Most people make the mistake of underestimating the strength of the enemy.

When there is a strong but lazy young man in the neighborhood, people always ask: "Why doesn't he join the army?"

It may not be possible for you to be agreeable to some people, but you can keep away from them.

You can be tolerably effective and not be a hero.

If your neighbors talk about you, it's a shame people gossip without reason about a man who always wants to do what's right with everybody.

Newspaper readers are come so tired of the noted people. To celebrate your victory only unnecessarily annoys the enemy.

If an honest man admits that he is weak, people who are weaker, and less honest, will abuse him because of his lack of what they call "idealism." Some people seem to think that "idealism" is refusal to admit the truth.

People who have a good thing are very apt to ask for a better.

QUITE A DIFFERENCE.

A short time since in an exchange received at the Journal office was a statement by a veteran who had been several months at the Soldiers' and Sailors' home in Quincy and he had all manner of evil things to say about it. He declared it was honey-combed with politics and the inmates were not treated at all as was deserved by the men who fought to save the union.

Yesterday the writer saw D. A. Williams who lived with William Patterson just a mile or so north of the poor farm. Mr. Williams had just returned from a sojourn of several months at the home and remembering the article referred to the writer asked Mr. Williams about the way the old soldiers are treated and he had only the highest words of praise.

He said he was partially disabled in one arm and men paid by the state were ready to help all he needed; the beds were good, the rooms comfortable and the table all right.

When told about the one who had complained he said there were men who would take their pension, go to town and get drunk and coming back would act in a manner unworthy of men, spoiling everything about them and doing all manner of mischief. Of course they were disappointed and of course didn't like the home. The Journal man could not recollect the name of the one who complained so, but Mr. Williams said he was doubtless an offender.

Mr. Williams has no especial pull; no particular friends who would be influential. He is a working man and sober and honest and unquestionably tells the truth.

A CLOSE CALL.

Yesterday morning A. J. Kendrick, a traveling man from Chicago, was standing in front of Alcott's drug store just at the dividing line between that building and the one on the corner when a heavy piece of cornice fell from the corner building and broke off the front rim of his hat. Had he been standing just a few inches farther to the east he would have been killed instantly. As it was he was well startled and glad to get off with the loss of a good hat.

The owner of the building cannot be censured as the cornice gave no indications of being faulty.

Many will recall the story of the man of Boston who was in the civil war all through, saw hard service, a number of battles, was in Andersonville prison hell and lived to come home all right and walking along the street was killed by a limb falling from a tree.

THE OLDEST SWITCHMAN ON THE DIVISION.

This is W. C. Beck, 2243 Spruce St., Quincy, Ill., who has been for 42 years in the employ of the C. & B. & Q. Ry. Co. He says: "Constant exposure gave me kidney trouble, with a steady, dull pain in my back that would turn into lumbago, and my kidney action was irregular. Since taking four bottles of Foley Kidney Pills I am free from all these troubles and gladly recommend them." City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

ROOFS WERE UNCOVERED.

Damage by Wind Thursday Night Was Considerable.

Daylight Friday revealed still more damage from the wind storm of Thursday night. Not only was the tin roof removed from the building on South Sandy street, in which Cox's hardware store is located, but also from the Gause building on the other side of the street. One of the lights in the door of the Gause store was broken out and a glass in the front of the Benson building was also shattered by a falling sign.

The skylight at the Peacock Inn was broken in. The tin roof on the back part of the McFarland property on West State street was also removed and lumber was at work on many roofs Friday getting them in shape again where the wind had wrought havoc.

The large shed in which A. F. Franks stores his machinery during the winter was turned over by the fierce gale and corncribs throughout the country were uncovered. There were also several large trees blown over. A big elm on Grove street was felled to the ground, being torn up by the roots, and a large maple near Conrad's residence on North Main street was laid low. On the farm of L. N. James, north of the city, a tin roof was carried from a hen house up into a tree to a height of 30 feet. There was no water damage to the stock of George S. Gay by reason of the roof of the store being removed, but Mr. Van Os, who occupies the rooms upstairs, sustained considerable damage to the walls of his apartments.

No Reverse Speed.

"That's a very knowing animal of yours," said a gentleman to the keeper of an elephant.

"Very," was the cold rejoinder.

"He performs strange tricks and antics, does he?" queried the gentleman.

"Surprisin'," retorted the keeper.

"We've taught him to put money in that box you see up there. Try him with half a crown."

The gentleman handed the elephant half a crown, and, sure enough, he took it in his trunk and placed it in the box high out of reach.

"Well, that is very extraordinary,
astounding, truly," said the green one,
opening his eyes. "Now, let's see him
take it out and hand it back."

"We never taught him that trick," retorted the keeper, who then turned away to stir up the monkeys and punch the hyenas.—London Tit-Bits.

SHEEP FEEDING PROFITABLE.

Lands, Crops, Climates and Markets Favorable to This Industry in Illinois.

A fundamental principle of profitable sheep feeding is that it goes hand in hand with the general farm.
No kind of meat animal fits into the economy of the diversified farm better than does sheep. It has been repeatedly urged and demonstrated by practical farmers that the sheep industry may be made permanent and profitable in this state.

Twenty-five years ago the fattening of western sheep for market was the beginning of a new industry in Illinois. At that time the only matured sheep, wethers and old ewes were shipped from the range, for wool rather than mutton was of greatest importance to the ranchman, but with the drop in the price of wool in 1893, the eastward movement of lambs for feeding purposes began.
Over 80 per cent of the sheep now found at the western and central markets to be sold for feeding are lambs.

Usually the best time to buy range sheep for feeding is in the latter part of July or first part of August and the number each feeder buys depends upon the amount of fall pasture and fall forage crops he is likely to have.

Few purchases are made after Oct.

1st, as the feeder desires to put the first range on his sheep from their cleaning of the fields, and for this purpose they are given the range of nearly all the fields of the farm.

Kind of Feeders to Buy.

The successful feeder is careful in selecting his stock sheep. If he desires to feed lambs, yearlings or wethers, he is particular about their form, size, weight, and their uniformity of quality and condition, as by buyers when the sheep are fattened and placed on the market.

Most of our feeders come from Oregon, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico and Colorado. The gains the feeder is able to make depends upon the size of the sheep and his ability to provide proper feed and care. The smaller the sheep the less gain he is likely to make. Average gains of successful feeders are from 20 to 45 pounds. The lighter weight, well-finished lambs, yearlings and wethers have commanded the highest prices
the past five years, as the buyers have discriminated against the heavy weight in all classes.

The Feeding Process.

In the main, sheep feeding, as now practiced in Illinois, involves securing feeders early enough in season to consume the fall growth of grass and weeds from the farm fields. They are turned into the corn fields either before or after the corn is harvested. In these fields the farmer has usually sown soy beans, cow peas or rape at the last cultivation of the land, but when the sheep first arrive from the west it is best to turn them on blue grass pasture or pasture not so succulent.

Baby's Voice

Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice. Because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal because such a time is usually a period of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and suffering, and their systems, being thoroughly prepared by this great remedy, are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible suffering and danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers; it is in no sense a remedy for various ills, but its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. This remedy does not accomplish wonders but simply assists nature to perfect its work. Mother's Friend allays nausea, prevents cutting of the breasts, and in every way contributes to a strong, healthy motherhood. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. ## TWO WOMEN

TESTIFY

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Their Health—Their own Statements Follow.

New Moorefield, Ohio.—"I take great pleasure in thanking you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had heavier downy pains, was dizzy and weak, had pains in lower back and could not lie upon my feet long enough to get to bed. As long as I had on my back I would feel better, but when I would get up those bearing down pains would come back, and the doctor said I had female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was the only medicine that helped me and I have been growing stronger ever since I commenced to take it. I hope it will help other suffering women as it has me. You can use this letter."—Mrs. Carrie M. Ford, New Moorefield, Ohio.

Read What This Woman Says: South Williamsport, Mass.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound certainly has done a great deal for me. Before taking it I suffered with backache and pains in my side. I was very nervous and had a bad nervous attack, especially after a period of sleep. I was tired, so I thought I would try your medicine. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt so much better that I got together and now I am a well woman. I wish more women would take your medicine. I have told my friends about it."—Mrs. Robert Cobb, Box 45, South Williamsport, Mass.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential.
